

FARRINGTON I - FARRINGTON ALPHA ONE

October 2023

Investment Approach

Farrington Alpha One is a long / short global equity fund with a strong focus on Western Europe and North America. The fund has a low net exposure of between -30% and +30%. The long and short book consists of roughly 20-30 companies each. We invest / short companies that may be growing or declining; capital-intensive or capital-light; making stellar returns or sub-par returns; have good management teams or poor. We are style-agnostic when it comes to characteristics such as these. What matters is that the price is wrong given the riskiness of the stream of future cash flows we expect will be generated by these businesses. It is our firm belief that valuation is the most critical determinant of future returns, this view does not alter when we are long or short a company.

We do not integrate sustainability risks in our investment decisions in a structural manner. (A sustainability risk in this context means an environmental, social or governance event or condition that, if it occurs, could cause an actual or a potential material negative impact on the value of an investment.) The reason for this is that the consideration of sustainability risks is not mandated by the investment policies agreed upon with our clients.

In our investment process we do not consider principal adverse impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors. (Sustainability factor in this context means environmental, social and employee matters, respect for human rights, anti-corruption and anti-bribery matters.) This because considering adverse impacts is not mandated by the investment policies agreed with our clients and because in our view it is not possible to establish what such principal adverse impacts might be.
